Pick & Pack & Weld—Oh My!

Boschert Gizelis robotics drive productivity. New to the USA, Boschert Gizelis delivers state-of-the-art automation, flexibility and adaptability for a wide scope of fabricators. With robotics applied to press brakes, weld cells or general machinery for packaging and shipping, Boschert Gizelis runs two or three shifts without an operator. As an up and coming American resource, Boschert Gizelis is perfectly positioned to meet the task—almost as if a robotic arm put it there.
